ELEMENTS OF THE OFFENSE

18 U.S.C. § 371
CONSPIRACY

In order to establish at a trial of this case that you were guilty of a felony violation of this statute, the United States would have to prove the following essential elements of the crime beyond a reasonable doubt:

- First: That you and at least one other person made an agreement to commit the crime of criminal infringement of a copyright as charged in the Bill of Information;
- Second: That you knew the unlawful purpose of the agreement and joined in it willfully, that is, with the intent to further the unlawful purpose; and
- Third: That you, or one of the other conspirators, during the existence of the conspiracy, knowingly committed at least one of the overt acts described in the Bill of Information, in order to accomplish some object or purpose of the conspiracy.
